DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to Applicant's amendment filed on 04/25/2008.
2. Claims 1-14, and 34-35 are currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-6, 8, 10-14, and 34-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Hillmer et al (U.S. Pat. No. 6,714,918) in view of Gopinathan et al (U.S. Pat. No. 5,819,226).

As per claims 1-6, 8, 10-14, and 34-35, Hillmer substantially discloses a method for determining a risk for fraud, comprising:

Receiving an order from a customer, outsourcing the order for placement in a separate queue from others for determining the risk fraud, determining a risk class for an order (see., Hillmer, col 4, lines 13-15, col 6, lines 20-34, col 12, lines 14-60, lines 50-60).

It is to be noted that Hillmer fails to explicitly disclose the steps of evaluating all outsourced orders as high risk, evaluating all outsourced as medium risk, and evaluating all outsourced orders as low risk. However, Gopinathan discloses an automated system and method detects fraudulent transactions using the process of evaluating all outsourced orders in (high, medium and low risk). Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the teaching of Hillmer by including the limitations detailed above as taught by Gopinathan because this would monitor the performance of the risk models when performance drops below a predetermined level.

5. Claims 7 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Hillmer et al (U.S. Pat. No. 6,714,918) in view of Gopinathan et al (U.S. Pat. No. 5,819,226) and further in view of Lee et al (U.S. Pat. No. 7,263,506).

As per claims 7 and 9, Hillmer and Gopinathan disclose the claimed method as stated in claim 1 above. It is to be noted that Hillmer and Gopinathan fail to disclose the step of "an eFalcon score". However, Lee discloses "an eFalcon system score (100)" see., abstract, col 1-col 12. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the teachings of Hillmer and Gopinathan by including the limitations detailed above as taught by Lee because this would measure the likelihood that each other is fraudulent.

RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to Claims 1-14, and 34-35 have been considered but they are moot in view of new ground (s) of rejection. Necessitated by amendment.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
